About VCI and the Wider Veritas Network

Veritas College International (VCI) is a faith-based, postsecondary institution dedicated to equipping Christian leaders through a comprehensive, Competency-Based Theological Education (CBTE) pathway. Although designated as a college, VCI functions with the scope and academic rigor of a university, offering programs that range from non-formal foundational training to advanced graduate-level degrees.

Progressive Ministry Education Pathway
VCI delivers theological education across four integrated levels:

1. Non-Formal Foundation Training
   This level consists of four core modules designed to empower local churches to train their own leaders to interpret, apply, and minister Scripture in their specific contexts. While not accredited, Foundation Training is the entry point into the Veritas educational pathway and the wider Veritas network of colleges currently serves more than 50,000 enrollments in approximately 50 countries worldwide.

2. Non-Formal Facilitator Training
   Once key leaders are trained as participants; they can be further equipped to ser as facilitators. This enables churches to train their own leaders within their local context. It also allows pastors to identify gifted individuals in non-formal training who can progress along the pathway and eventually pursue accredited theologica education. In this way, the divide between formal and non-formal education is bridged.

3. Undergraduate Programs
   Building on the Foundation Training and Facilitator Training, VCI offers two undergraduate credentials:
   - Diploma in Theology (DipTh in Theology)
   - Associate of Arts in Theology (AATh in Theology)

   These accredited programs are adapted to meet U.S. academic standards and introduce students to formal theological education while remaining closely connected to ministry practice.

4. Graduate Programs
   These accredited programs reflect a higher level of academic rigor and are aligne with U.S. graduate education standards. They include:
   - Graduate Diploma in Biblical Ministry (GradDip)
   - Master of Arts in Biblical Ministry (MA)
   - Master of Divinity (MDiv)
   - Doctor of Ministry (DMin)

Each academic level builds intentionally on the previous one, forming a stacked credential framework. This design offers multiple entry and exit points, supporting bo flexibility and academic coherence. Students demonstrate mastery of defined competencies before advancing to the next stage of their theological formation.

VCI's Educational Approach
VCI's mission is to provide high-quality, contextualized theological education that prepares students for faithful and effective ministry in their own cultures. Through its
